MAGDA IS TITLE OPENING PLAY AT

MIKEE BANKIN-MARGARET DREW COMPANY WILL APPEAR THIS EVENING

McKee Rankin, the well known character actor, heading his own company, will present at the Nevada theater tonight the Sudermann play, "Magda," last presented on the const four years ago by Mrs. Patrick Camp-bell, the noted English actress.

When Manager Goodfriend learned that Mr. Bankin had a few weeks to fill in before sailing for Honolulu. where the company will play the first two months of next year, he persuaded Rankin to come to Tono-pah and Goldfield. For the past week the company has been delighting the audiences of Goldfield, playing nightly to excellent houses and winning the applause of the entire town. Goodfriend knows they will make friends in Tonopah as they have done in its sister city and their stay here will be an event to be re

Rankin brings as leading woman of his company Miss Margaret Drew, well known to Pacific coast audiences because of former visits during the past several years with dramatic attractions. Lloyd Ingraham, equally well known to the coast, is his lead-ing man. Others of the company appearing in principle roles are Miss Maude Monroe, Miss Fern Marshall, Orrin Knox, Chester Stevens and Howard Lindsay, Miss Drew is said to bring to "Magda" the advantage of a delicate personal beauty of a peculiar type and the expert facility of ripe experience. The Sudermann masterpiece, written many years ago, is of particular-ly keen interest today in that its theme is one of the important present issues of civilization. Its theme is claimed to be the greatest sermon on equal rights for women ever preached. The story, however, is not overburdened with "lessons" and its interesting evolution is worked out in four acts with a swiftness of action and unexpectedness of climaxes calculated to give plenty of dramatic thrill.

If you have ideas-if you can THINK-we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language"

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication" Perhaps we can do the same for you.
